Celebrating Millie's 90th Birthday!

By Marney Stewart

THE WIND AND RAIN did not stop the party! Well over 100 people gathered at the Free Methodist Church last Thursday evening for the 90th Birthday Come-and-Go Tea for Millie Jacobs Troyer.

At 90, Millie is vivacious and active! She was scheduled to go sky-diving two weeks ago to celebrate this big mile stone in her life but was disappointed to find out, upon arrival at the airport, that it was too windy to do the jump. She did however go for a motorcycle ride instead!

Millie arrived early to the Come and Go Tea and greeted the crowd of well wishers as they arrived. Throughout the evening there was a wonderful variety of appetizers and delicious desserts for the party-goers to enjoy. Shortly after the party kicked-off, the candles were lit on the delectable cake made by Marsha Betournay and the crowd sang an enthusiastic "Happy Birthday" to a speechless birthday girl.

Many attendees also participated in a little game called "How Well Do You Know Marvelous Millie?" The game was in the form of a 10 question quiz and the prize for the winners were O'Henry chocolate bars, Millie's favourite! There was also time for people to share stories about Millie and many spoke of how Millie has impacted lives over the years and has been such an inspiration to young and old.

Millie shared the following quote during the evening and it seems so appropriate to end a write-up about Millie with it:

Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter.

Publisher's Note: In May 2013, the Island Clippings was privileged to tell some of the story of this remarkable woman and All Tribes, the widely-acclaimed Christian Camp that she founded here on St. Joe, 51 years ago.

It took two issues (# 896, May 23, 2013 and # 897, May 30, 2013) to simply cover the basics and we barely scratched the surface of this amazing woman's rich and heart-warming story.

Happy Birthday Millie!

For the Health of It

*By Dr. Dan Sicoli,
Chiropractor and Clinical Acupuncturist*

IN ORDER TO CONTINUE keeping our readers informed on health and wellness topics, we're pleased to welcome Dr. Dan Sicoli, noted local Chiropractor and Clinical Acupuncturist, as a contributing author. His thriving practice serves several communities throughout Central Algoma, including a clinic every Tuesday at Matthews Memorial Hospital.

In this week's column, he offers some important clarification on: Spring allergies: Myths and Facts

1. Flowers cause allergies.

MYTH. Very few people are allergic to a bouquet of flowers. Usually the pollen made by the flowers is to blame.

2. Pollen counts can predict bad days.

FACT. A pollen count is the number of grains of pollen per volume of air. A high count means an increase in allergic symptoms. Pollen counts can be located on the the weather-network.com.

3. Local honey fights off allergies.

MYTH. Most allergies are not brought on by the pollen found in honey; that means eating it will not build up immunity. Honey does have other benefits however (antioxidant, decrease cough and sore throat irritation).

4. You will outgrow allergies.

MYTH. When it comes to allergies (especially hay fever), most children don't outgrow them; some people do, however, report an improvement.

5. Rain washes away pollen.

FACT. The best days for people with allergies to go outdoors are those after heavy rains. Pollen counts are lowest on chilly, soggy days. On hot, dry, windy days, they are highest between 10 am and 4 pm; so if you want to go outdoors, wait until late evening.

6. Hay fever comes from hay.

MYTH. Hay fever isn't fever and it doesn't come from hay. It's caused by weeds, grass, and tree pollens.

Island Insight

Letters to the Editor printed in the Island Insight Column reflect the views of the writer and not necessarily those of the Island Clippings.

Hearing loss caused by loud road ... or just age? It's a mystery.

Last year, a re-surfacing of the road between Hilton Beach and Hamilton Bay Road took place. We have so far seen little or no improvement to this section of the road and in fact, the road in question is worse than before.

Granted ... spring is here (we think) with its frost problems, etc. but I am questioning the mix they used to re-surface the road. When you travel this short section of the road, ear damage is possible.

Overall the roads on this beautiful Island are well-maintained and adequately ploughed in the winter. As a visiting friend pointed out ... "Did they cover this section of road with dynamite caps? It's deafening to the ears!"

Let's hope it improves, as hearing aids are expensive.

Deadline for applications is May 28th, 2014

7. No childhood allergies? No problems.

MYTH. Allergies often begin in childhood but you can develop them as an adult as well.

Because of our cool wet weather the last couple of months, the spring bloom has been held off by a couple of weeks, in most cases. In other years, this might be a blessing for allergy sufferers, but likely not this year. Experts agree that, with all of the moisture seen over the last few weeks, and the wet pattern likely to continue through the month of May, this could be the worst start to allergy season in years.

When temperatures do climb, the pollen release from trees, grass and flowers all simultaneously can lead to a lot of misery for allergy sufferers. So keep your Kleenex close.

Highway 548 Floods Near K Line

IT WAS BOUND TO HAPPEN sooner or later. With the freshly-thawed ground virtually saturated by repeatedly heavy rainfalls, even the Island's biggest road, Highway 548 can't remain immune to flooding problems.

After earlier problems had been dealt with on the Highway's U Line section, the latest flooding occurred last weekend near the K Line curve, when its drainage ditch, notorious to snowmobilers as 'the K Line Hole', overflowed onto the road surface. With ditches averaging five to seven feet deep in that area, there was clearly an immense amount of water running off the adjoining properties through – then over – the ditch onto and across the road.

Transfield Services, who have the highway maintenance contract with the province, worked into Sunday morning, draining and dredging the ditch and installing a new culvert – all just in time, it seems, with still more rain in the forecast throughout the week.

We're pleased to reprint yet another former Island Clippings article from the 1990's by the late Mrs. Eleanor Adcock, taken from the files of the St. Joseph Island Historical Society. In this episode, she tells us about ...

The Mississaugi Boys' Camp

DID YOU KNOW that there was a camp for older boys at Sterling Bay from 1930 to 1937? It was called the Mississaugi Boys' Camp. They had previously camped on the Mississaugi River for several summers but the Sterling Bay site became the permanent one for the summers.

Mr. Herb Twining of Ann Arbor Michigan already had a camp for younger boys at Birch Lake Michigan. In 1930 he purchased the Sterling Bay property from Mr. Nels Espeland, who then became the caretaker. This property had, years earlier been the saw-mill community of Mr. Pete Chesterfield and consisted of four two-storey homes and a store which became the camp storehouse.

The site is bounded on one side by Sterling Bay and on the other by Whiskey Bay. The camp had a well equipped kitchen and a large dining hall with two large tables to seat approximately 30 people. It was staffed with a cook, Mr. Jack Whitely from the Bruce Mines area; Mr. Lloyd Melville, the guide, from Rydall Bank and Louis Anderson, local, was the truck driver and handyman. The first camp manager was a Mr. Pierre Pulling who lived at the camp with his wife and young son.

The camp was equipped with 15 sixteen foot freighter canoes and a stake truck for their land transportation. While in camp, the boys, 16 years old and over, practiced baseball and played against the big boys of Hilton Beach.

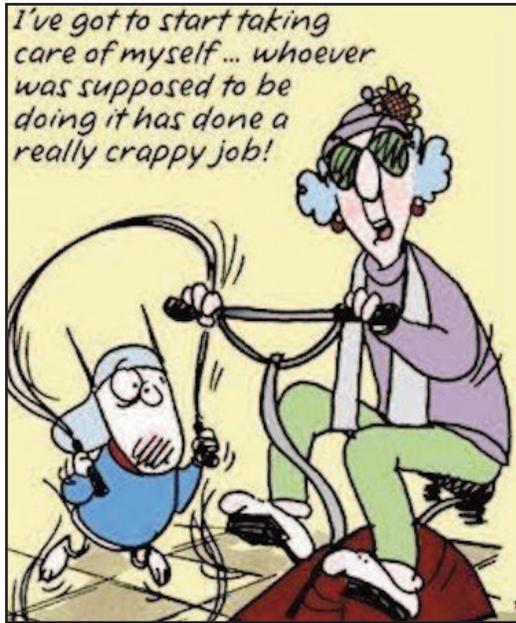

The big experience every summer was a long canoe trip. Every summer except one when they canoed to Michipicoten Island, they canoed to James Bay. Another exception was when they chartered a boat to Hudson Bay and islands north of Hudson Bay.

Because the Mississauga Boys' Camp came into being during the Great Depression which dragged on, many of the Well-to-do Americans were not so "Well off" anymore and fewer were enrolling for camp and Mr. Twining was forced to close it in 1937. Mr. Espeland died in 1937 and Russell Adcock was caretaker for the property until 1946. During the 1950s the buildings and contents were severely vandalized.

The property was eventually purchased by developers who made it into the Sterling Bay Estates Subdivision.

Want to know more about our rich Island history, or perhaps learn more about your own family? The Historical Society welcomes your inquiries, or your own family photos and stories. Their next regular meeting will be on Tuesday, May 20th at the St. Joseph Township Library in Richards Landing. ## THANK YOU

I wish to thank my friends and relatives for all their cards, gifts and good wishes on the occasion of my 90th birthday. Thanks also to the Harmony U.C.W. for a celebration and to Harvey & Mary for hosting the Stevens party. I am truly blessed to have such good friends. Sincerely, Elsie Stevens

Huge thanks to all who donated their shoes, two huge car loads in total, to the Easter Seals Mega Shoe Drive! Your help brings Easter Seals much closer to its collection goals. Thank you, Judy, Sig and Neil for creating a warm welcome at the Hunters and Anglers Conservation Centre. Carmen Nelson

A big thank you to all rural health care champions who joined the campaign to keep Matthews Memorial Hospital open. To Dr. Lupien and the nurses who gave me their utmost attention when I arrived with my heart attack on April 1st. To the ambulance attendants and to the Sault Area Hospital staff after midnight and the next day, to the Code Orange team, to the Sudbury Cardiac unit and all the doctors, thank you for being there. To my neighbour Robert Campbell who looked after my pets, my daughter Sandra for taking me home from Sudbury, Anne Marie for spending a few nights and to Norma with her meals. Thank you all for your get well cards and please save our hospital! For it saved me. Sincerely, Anna Maria Maguire

OBITUARY

Leslie Arthur Newey: On Monday, May 26th at 1 pm we will be saying our last farewell to Leslie Arthur Newey, formerly of R.R.#1 Richards Landing, in the church at Mountain Maple Grove Cemetery, St. Joseph Island.
