Weather Cooperates for Harvest Of Artists

setting up their booths.

Lots of people cycled through the Centennial Grounds in Richards Landing throughout the day in what was billed as the biggest art show on the island all year. It certainly grew from last year's event, which was really the first big event to happen during the pandemic. Despite the growth this year, booths were still spaced out in the open air environment and there was plenty of room and parking for the many patrons.

Speaking to several of the vendors, they were pleased to say sales were good, not only at the event but in recent times with everyone spending more time at home finding they really do have the perfect spot for that picture or painting they have been admiring. Also for the most part gone are the days worrying you had to bring enough

It really looked like Harvest of Artists would be rained out this year with predictions of rain all day as early as a little more than 24hrs before, however the day turned out to be bright and sunny despite the worries from the dozens of artisans cautiously cash with you as most vendors either had the square device to accept debit or credit cards, or were able to accept etransfers just in case you decided to spend a little more than what you thought. With shows like this few and far between many have gone to selling their goods online both locally and not so locally so if you missed out or are thinking twice about something you saw give them a google and you may find they offer the items online as well.

There was quite a mix of items available from both artists we are familiar with and ones we just discovered. Indeed, creativity does appear to be on the rise again and although summer will quickly turn to fall, it probably won't be that long before we see many of these artists showing off their products again. As for Harvest of Artists, if it can grow during 2 pandemic summers we'd bet on it coming back even bigger next year.

New Official Plan for St. Joseph Island Help us chart a course for future growth and development!

The St. Joseph Island Planning Board is preparing a new Official Plan for the Island and is seeking input from residents and landowners.

An Official Plan is a land use plan that provides direction for growth and development activities, including housing, recreation spaces, employment areas, preservation of environmental features, and protection of health and safety.

Public input is an important part of the planning process. The Planning Board invites all residents and property owners to complete a survey questionnaire to identify priorities for the Official Plan.

An online version of the survey is available at the link below:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/929XN95>

Hard copies of the survey are being sent with municipal tax bills. Additional hard copies of the survey will be available at all municipal offices on the Island. All Island residents and landowners are encouraged to complete and submit the survey by September 30, 2021.

Please return completed hard copy surveys to any municipal office, or mail to:

ST. JOSEPH ISLAND MUSEUM MOMENT

I can't believe it's September already. Summer has flown by. We welcomed back visitors mid-July and I'm happy to report there has been a steady trickle since. It's slower than normal years but due to the circumstances it's understandable. I'm hoping soon day trippers will return to the area. The bulk of our visitors have been more long-term with many renting cottages or cabins. Most have mentioned they are from Sault Ste. Marie and surrounding area. I think that is great! We are all learning to enjoy activities right in our own backyard. Haven't we all been guilty of living somewhere and not seeing the local sights? These past two summers have been eye-opening for some who are used to travelling to other destinations, instead they are taking part in a "staycation". As an individual employed in tourism I think although the past two seasons have been bleak for the tourism industry there's also been a few bright spots too. I've met so many people that are new to the Island that made stopping into the Museum for a tour something on their "to do" list. I've also met long-time residents that have never been here and decided this was the year, there are the Island residents who make their annual trip to "take a stroll back in time". Finally, we have friends of the Museum who visit multiple times in a season as every time they host out of town visitors they bring them to the Museum for a tour.

As things are slowly returning to "normal" consider taking in some local sites, start with a trip to St Joseph Island Museum, pack a picnic lunch and make a day of it.

My absolute favourite time of year is here, late August and September are where crispy mornings meet warm afternoons.

The Museum is open through the month of September.

On August 18, our daughter and son-in-law left their beloved family dog, Halley, with us at camp on Canoe Point Road so they could go on a vacation to Ottawa. At 6:00 p.m. on the 23rd she slipped away from us. After searching the immediate area we got in the car. She had been spotted at 7:00 p.m. about 1KM down the road. Driving around the end of Canoe Point Road and Gawas Bay, she was spotted up on the Highway. I stopped and called out to her and she turned around and bolted between the cottages. Spotted again around 8:00 p.m. running the Highway between the F&G Line and Camp D'Ours Island Road – she would not come – she again ran between the camps there. Waiting at Gawas Bay until 11:00 p.m. with no more sightings after driving F&G and D Line and over to Kents Corner. We gave up for the night. Back out at 4:00 a.m. – nothing – back out again at 7:00 a.m. in the Gawas Bay area – no signs. Leaving our cell number with everyone we saw and the businesses at Kents Corner. We hadn't informed our daughter and her family – wanting them to enjoy their vacation, but felt social media was the way to go for more help. Calling our son-in-law was very difficult, telling him to keep our daughter, Elaine, off of FaceBook because Karen Eddy posted a lost dog ad for us. Minutes after the post, Elaine called me! Hoping it wasn't her dog her Auntie Karen posted about. A missing German Shepherd!! I promised our daughter that "we will find her safe and sound". They decided to return home. Focusing on Shore Road after being spotted on Bridge Road at 9:00 a.m. she was spotted at 11:30 a.m. near the end of Shore Road. We all met at the end of Shore Road with the help of Mary Jane and Jamie Horbatuk and their daughter trying to lure Halley with treats. We were able to flush her out onto the trail straight to Keith Luck at the end of Humbug Point. She jumped into his truck when he called out to her. She was excited to see a familiar face. Halley is fine, however the pads of her paws are a bit raw! She ate two bowls of food and drank two bowls of water when we finally got her back to camp. Her family arrived a few hours later and Halley was so excited to see them all. So many people to thank for the 22 hours of searching for this very well-loved dog. Our grandson, Gregory, asked "how many people looked for her? 12 or 14 people?". I answered "No Gregory...hundreds!". A sincere thank you to all the wonderful people on St. Joseph Island who helped and called back to see if she was found. We are forever grateful to Karen Eddy, Miriam & Joe Sharp, Ralph & Wendy Robertson, Christine McMaster, Kelly Hotchkiss, Myrna Vair, Jim & Deb Beckerson, Shawna, Ethan, Dylan and Brydan Wootton, Vicki & Brian Stewart, Alisha Campbell & Family, Rachel & Bruce Coulter (for bringing us dinner), St. Joseph Township Road Maintenance (for watching out for Hailey), the businesses at Kent's Corner, the Flagmen that reported seeing her at 6:00 a.m. at Gawas Bay, the residents of Gawas Bay, Shore Road and Humbug Point, Cory Luck, Michelle Cond, Tim Fitzgerald, Mary Jane & Jamie Horbatuk and their daughter, Keith Luck (Elaine & Jim's Echo Bay neighbour and friend – who is our HERO for calling her to his truck and she jumped in, 22 hours later! And to anyone else who assisted, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Dave & Debby Thomlinson, Canoe Point Road
Elaine, Jim, Gregory, Allanah and Joey Beckerson, Echo Bay
